This beautifully renovated three-bedroom detached bungalow presents a rare opportunity to acquire a spacious, stylish, and move-in-ready home, set within a generous plot in a peaceful private cul-de-sac location, offering quiet and desirable living.

The accommodation has been thoughtfully updated throughout, featuring a high standard of finish with new carpets, oak veneer doors, a new boiler, and modern improvements. The accommodation comprises a spacious hallway, a bright sitting room, conservatory, a new Howden's fitted kitchen, three well-proportioned bedrooms, and a large contemporary bathroom with walk-in shower.

Further enhancing its appeal, the bungalow benefits from solar panels. Should a buyer wish, there is the potential for future development, with 'permission in principle', for the construction of one additional dwelling with scope for other potential uses (reference 25/00867/PIP).

Outside, the pleasant wrap-around fore garden is beautifully established with plants as well as a fig tree in the rear garden. There is also a garage and separate shed, ideal for storage, leading to the enclosed south facing rear garden.

This exceptional bungalow offers the perfect combination of modern comfort, privacy, and future potential, making it an ideal home for buyers looking for peaceful living with scope to add further value. Offered for sale with no onward chain, early viewing is highly recommended.
